Our story is a 42 page colorful children's book that blends the true spirit of the season with the fun and imagination of the holiday. We have hidden elves on every page and Mrs. Claus' secret cookie recipe in the back of the book. Santa knows that he can handle making all the toys and games that children ask for but when he gets letters from kids asking for things that he can not provide he turns to Merryam. Merryam shares that no one, not even Santa can do everything alone. With prayer, faith and a little fun together they get it all done. The story was written while a young boy asked Santa to make his Mommy going through cancer better. The family told him that Santa could do many things but that God and prayer are the ones that could help her and anyone going through a difficult time in their life. Santa takes care of what the children want and Merryam prays for what they need.
