The Power of Music Therapy R. Wolf Baldassarro

Have you ever heard a piece of music that brought tears to your eyes? Listening to music as therapy can really change your mood. It has the power to encourage the expression of emotion and feeling, release tension and stress and aid healing, creating harmony between Mind, Body and Spirit. Music is therapy even when used for pure listening pleasure. As we relax the body and mind, breathing becomes deeper and we are pulled into the music, where we become more focused. We have reached a time where we need experiences in order to know about ourselves on a higher level of awareness. Experience is our best teacher and music therapy is a means that can provide the listener with internal experiences for positive change to take place. This is a complete therapy kit including CDs and flashcards (shipped separately but included in purchase price).
