Life for Craig Winston the green bear is pretty great. He loves his family, he has lots of friends, and more hobbies than he can count. And when he befriends a fellow classmate named Dave, Craig could never have imagined that trouble was just around the corner. When Dave, a bear with autism, becomes the target of bullying in the classroom and in the playground, Craig and his best friend Ben learn about the harmful ways bullying can affect everyone, including the ones we love.
