The story of Christian world missions: annals of the world's greatest family...the family of God. We're at a time in religious history, when 1,001 activities are being called "Missions." However, Jesus gave his Church only one task to do. He said, "Go and make to me disciples among all people groups." We have been doing many good things; but we have failed to complete the one task he said would bring back the King. Listen to what great missionaries say -- calling the Church to make "the first thing the first thing.
