One, Two, Three, Four, Five is a romantic thriller introducing Samantha Raven, a young, rich college student being stalked by the kidnapper she does not know. The fall 2010: Samantha Raven was kidnapped and rescued by the FBI. But she could never forget the traumatic event. She wanted a normal life... not just a rich girl's life with a constant fear of being kidnapped...again! Samantha had put those self-protective walls around herself. She was not ready for love. She did not want to be hurt again. She was not strong enough to handle any stress or emotional turbulence after the kidnapping trauma. She just wanted to do something what any other girl her age would do: go out and have fun, date, and finish her studies at the college. Nevertheless, she meets two new men. Both are different. Both like her and want to date her. Her love life is in turbulence. Can she find someone who will love her like crazy and not only be interested in her money?
