Chassidic Adventure Classic #2: Forty Days and Forty Nights D. J. Granovetter

Chanie has appeared in the middle of a dark, deadly forest – with her memory gone! The forest is full of terrifying creatures, like reservoir dogs – blood thirsty dog-wild boar hybrids, giant spiders, and flying piranha, among many more. Chanie is soon to find out that she has been transported to this forest, called the Forest of Fear, to play the Game. The Game is very simple: You have forty days and forty nights to find your secret Exit out of the forest. You receive three Clues, in the form of riddles, which lead you to your Exit. Chanie must play the Game because she made a deal with a mysterious woman called Agatha, who offered Chanie to heal her twin brother Eli, who was suffering from a deathly illness, in exchange for Chanie signing on to play the Game. There are other children in the Forest who are Players in this Game – but Chanie is the only one who is Jewish and frum. Chanie soon discovers a huge advantage she has – for it turns out that in order to interpret the Clues to find your Exit, you need to know Chassidus!
