Maid for It (An Erotic Novella) (Maids for It Book 1) Lucy Rodgers

This is a novella of approximately 24,500 words (about 70 pages). In addition, an excerpt from MAID FOR PLEASURE, the next novella in the series, is provided at the end.

DESCRIPTION:

In fear for her life after witnessing a powerful drug lord gun down two rivals, Gabriela Marquez flees Sinaloa for the safety of the United States. No sooner does she arrive, however, than she's arrested and threatened with immediate deportation unless she agrees to work for Maid for It, a company providing specialty housekeeping services to high-end clients. Gabi soon realizes the "specialty" services she must provide will be of a sexual nature. She should refuse, but she can't risk deportation. Prostitution is preferable to death.

Her first assignment is in the home of Benjamin Hardcastle, a wealthy and reclusive computer security expert. He's also Maid for It's most exacting client. Determined to please the heretofore unpleasable Mr. Hardcastle, Gabi keeps her past a secret. If he discovers the truth—that she's been coerced into the role of sexual slave—he'll send her away.

But what begins as a unwelcome obligation becomes an awakening to the incredible pleasures of domination, bondage, and submission. As Gabi discovers she truly is "made for it," her secret looms larger, threatening her survival in an entirely unexpected way.

Warning: This story contains graphic depictions of sex and sexual practices some readers may find disturbing, including dubious consent and lack of safe words. The author does not endorse or encourage such practices.
