Esta obra analiza la explosiva combinación entre terrorismo, nuevas tecnologías de la información y agravios históricos. La recuperación del dominio islámico sobre la Península Ibérica continúa siendo un objetivo irrenunciable para Al Qaeda y sus afines. Los radicales han encontrado en Internet una oportunidad para potenciar y reinterpretar en términos agresivos el mito de un paraíso arrebatado por la fuerza. A partir de abundante información inédita, el libro explica el papel que juega Al Andalus en el universo yihadista, se rastrean los rincones del ciberespacio donde resulta posible encontrar el español como vehículo para incitar a la violencia, se reconstruye el papel que jugó Internet en los atentados del 11-M en Madrid, y se profundiza en algunas de las principales operaciones policiales contra los grupos e individuos que han empleado el ciberespacio para librar su particular yihad contra España.
