Double Proposal Barbara Joe Williams

Monique Kennedy is a full-figured sistah who has been celibate since the birth of her three-year-old daughter and living single in New Orleans. After relocating to Tallahassee for a new job, she meets Prince Conyers and falls in love. Three months later, he proposes marriage, and that is when her baby daddy returns with devastating news and a proposal of his own.

Will she choose the lover who abandoned her three years ago or the prince she has only known for three months?
