Eighteen at Last (Wilson Mooney Book 2) Gretchen de la O

The 2nd book in a New Adult student/teacher romance series

Chained by unfortunate timing and restricted by society's expectations, every choice Wilson and Max make becomes pivotal to their future together.

Eager to take their relationship to the next level, Wilson returns to Aspen with Max to celebrate her eighteenth birthday. When an uncontrollable situation leads to a split-second decision, both will be tested like never before. Butterflies will soar, hearts will clash, and Wilson's relationship with Max will spin into a silken cocoon with choices that seem too impossible to overcome.

Could it be...uncovering the deep ache that lays dormant in their hearts will become the real threat to their forbidden love? Or will the pressures of keeping their relationship a secret be too much to bear?
