Tudor Queen, Tudor Crown Jennifer Peter Woods

She is the only surviving daughter of Katherine of Aragon and Henry VIII...

Born to a king desperate for a son, Mary is forced to watch as her father sets his quest for a male heir in motion. Queen after queen will come and go. Paths will collide, lives will be gambled and the great game for the throne played, lost and won.

It is her destiny to rule...

Branded a bastard and plagued by ill health, Mary clings to her Faith until the untimely death of her young brother, Edward VI, propels her to Queenship. But for her, wearing the crown will prove to be the deadliest task of all...

Told from varying perspectives, Tudor Queen, Tudor Crown is a tale of Mary I, her times and her tribulations. This title is for mature audiences. Contains adult themes and violence.
