America! (America, My Country Tis of Thee, Sweet Land of Liberty, Let Freedom Ring! Book 1) Thelma Whitehorton

This document is about the situation which eixist in our country today. It is about our inability to have an out of control regime follow our wishes as a nation.

The regime is an unelected, shadow government which uses us as slaves to perform as we are dictated to perform. " Divide and concur" is it's motto.

These "Lordsof the Realm" are an army of sorts which control all aspects of government and our population, It is they who say who will live and who will not live. We are at the hands of a merciless machine that has devoured our souls. We must find courage enough to stand up, if not for ourselves, then for our progeny and demand that this particular entity, respond to our wishes as a country or face dire consequences.

No amount of things, money or vehicles can satisfy a human being without self respect. In America, that lack of self respect is tearing at the core of our civilization. Do not think these Lords will let you live. They will not. They have your termination planned. Only they will survive this holicaust.

Heed me. I am the only one on this planet they can not kill. But, one must be willing to die, to live in America, today.
