After hearing another woman pick up Zane's phone she is convinced he is cheating. But, is he? With the wounds of miscarriage still opened, will the couple have a chance to get closure? Or will they continue to blame each other? She has the ring but will she ever get to walk down the aisle to become Mrs. Whitfield?

Monett is in love and ready to start her lifetime with Hakeem. What happens if her past keeps interfering with her future? Will she run Hakeem off by bringing her past into her present and future? Johnathan is ready to fight for custody of their son and doesn't wanna fight fair. Does Monett fight dirtier and provide the proof of his abuse?

With the death of Rick, Tammy has some of the hardest time she will ever endure coming. With her rider gone and two babies to care for she's at a brick wall with no way to climb over. All she wants to do is lock herself away and mourn her husband's death, but when their death the fools come out. Rick's mother wants in on the inheritance that Tammy and her daughters stand to inherit for the malpractice suit.

Will Tammy roll over and allow them to walk over her or will she pull up her sleeves and fight for what's rightfully hers. What happens when her mother wants to be in her children's life without taking accountability of what happened many years ago? Life isn't all about happy endings, will these couples get their happily ever after?
