The Ultimate Host called you and me before we were born. He said: "Come on in, you are welcome here. I made you to know Me. You can know me best at My table." His call is personal. He loved us and He called us. You may have answered. But is that all? Not even close. Because God welcomed us, we must pass along that welcome to others. Why invite? Because the more we do, the more we are like God.
