Fifteen-year-old computer genius Blue is scared—the FBI’s Domestic Terrorism unit suspects him of causing the crash of a major airliner. After succeeding in hooking up a favorite combat flight game to real air traffic control computers in an abandoned airport control tower and networking them to commercial flight simulators, everything goes terribly wrong when an early morning flight is drawn off course and crashes into the Rocky Mountain Arsenal.

When the FBI finds Blue’s computer and have reason to believe he is responsible, he is desperate to clear his name. Certain his game wasn’t the cause, Blue needs to figure out who is responsible—and why they did it.
