Willow Strong (Tea or Sympathy Book 4) Joyce DeBacco

All Wendy wanted when she returned to her hometown was to buy back the childhood home stolen from her family; she didn't count on buying it with love. But when Brian, its current owner, expresses interest in her, she realizes if he were to fall in love with her, she'd get back everything his family stole from hers. They start seeing each other and to her surprise, she finds herself falling for him. While she might have played him in the beginning, all she wants now is to be with him in the house they both love. Not to right a wrong, but because her life has come full circle, and she believes they were meant to be together. Now she just has to keep him from learning about her past so he'll never wonder if it's him or his home and farm she loves the most. This light romance can be enjoyed as part of the series or as a standalone read.
