A Sunflower Story Mary Denning

A Sunflower Story relates both the beauty and importance of nature in a lovely picturebook that young children can understand and enjoy. A lively group of garden flowers and animals help convince a proud sunflower that having a purpose is just as important as being incredibly attractive. In addition to writing a wonderful story, author Mary Denning, an award-winning poet and acclaimed painter, uses brilliant watercolor illustrations that will delight children of all ages. Children will love the colorful characters on Mr. McKenna's Farm as they also learn about all of the things flowers can do, and how everything has a special purpose.
