Having a hearty laugh is one of the best things you can do for yourself. Even doctors agree that laughter has important benefits for the human body. Humor relieves stress and gives you a positive outlook on life. Here's a book that will help you tap into laughter's creative power. It may not keep you out of the doctor's office, but it could extend your life. And it will certainly make you a more pleasant person to be around.

HILARIOUS CLEAN JOKES, ANECDOTES, AND ONE-LINERS is filled with rib-tickling creations that have been gleaned by its editor from several different sources across a period of several years. Only the best of the best and the funniest of the funny humorous pieces are included in this unique collection.

Here you will find more than four hundred jokes, anecdotes, and one-liners--all conveniently organized into twenty-four different subjects. These topics include Politics, Religion, Sports, Death & Funerals, Marriage, Senior Citizens, Hunting & Fishing, Animals, Money, and Work.

After enjoying these jokes yourself, you will get an even bigger kick passing them on to your friends. They will thank you for helping them see the humorous side of life. The book is also a great resource for public speakers and writers who are always looking for fresh material to spark up their speeches and essays.
