La Idea De América Latina (Bip (Biblioteca Iberoamericana De Pensamiento)) (Spanish Edition)

Walter D. Mignolo

El término Latinoamérica sugiere que hay una América que es latina, definida por oposición a una que no lo es. En este brillante manifiesto geopolítico, Walter Mignolo retoma la idea de latinidad y emprende un seguimiento del concepto desde su nacimiento en una Europa en la que Francia era la potencia dominante hasta la actualidad, pasando por la apropiación que de él hizo la élite criolla de América del Sur y el Caribe hispano en la segunda mitad del siglo XIX. A partir de la actual revalorización de los pueblos aborígenes, la gran población de ascendencia africana y los cuarenta millones de personas de origen latino residentes en Estados Unidos, eclipsados tras la imagen de una Latinoamérica homogénea, el autor se pregunta qué elementos entran en juego en la supervivencia de una idea que subdivide al continente americano. Asimismo, Mignolo explica por qué una Unión Americana similar a la Unión Europea es impensable hoy en día, insistiendo en la imperiosa necesidad de abandonar una idea de latinidad que está asociada con la mentalidad criolla-mestiza decimonónica. Walter Mignolo es profesor de lingüística de la Universidad de Yale.
