FROM INTERNATIONAL BESTSELLING AUTHOR of CHECKMATE (Checkmate, # 1) ***

Games can be different. Some are innocent, others are dangerous. But there are also those that you will never learn how to play.

Oliver Altier is a guy whose every day is a game, a game of passion. His only rule is: no strings attached, no guilt involved. Oliver thinks he knows everything about how to please women. Until one day, he meets Jillian Murano, a woman who is so much like him when it comes to relationships: she hates obligations, but she loves men, margaritas and fun.

What will be different this time?

Will passion and lust be enough to turn their games into something real?

If they thought it would be nothing but another play, they should have thought twice before getting into something that will change them both, once and for all...
