Your Family Tree! What's In Your Roots? David L. Cole

Have you wondered about who your ancestors were? Where they came from? What kind of lifestyle they lived? If you haven't got a clear picture about how to go about it, then you need this book! My goal is to help you steer clear of generic heritage peddlers, paid researchers, and complete your family tree on a budget! This book offers some background on naming patterns, heritage passed down to us, and where the free resources are. It discusses what to put in your family tree, and also how to get help if you get stuck! The end result will be publishing your work in some form so that all of your family and relatives can share it. It is an excellent hobby, and productive unlike most games, etc. If you have been putting it off, then accept the guidance from this book and start yours today!
