Let Me Go Lily Foster

Home is wherever her heart is...

Kasia Mazur has always walked a fine line between her two worlds—one where the modest, traditional values instilled by her hardworking, immigrant parents clash with the decadent lifestyles of those she spends her days with—the rich and the privileged of the elite schools she attends on scholarship.

Kasia has always known who she is and has stayed true to herself. When she takes a chance on someone from the other side of the tracks—the type of man Kasia has always avoided—he leads her onto a path filled with love, happiness, sin, and regret.

When Kasia is forced to make a choice between two men who love her deeply, which life will she choose—one that comes with great wealth, power and risk, or will she find her heart's desire at home?

Let Me Go is Book 3 in this series of stand-alone but connected romances.

Intended for readers 18 and older due to mature sexual content

There is heartbreak, there is betrayal, and there are toe-curling sex scenes...You've been officially warned.
