This book has not only been constructed from Physical evidence and DNA mutation testing, but also the writings of Jewish, Greek, Christian, Sumerian, Khemetian, Monugulalan, Dravidian, Chaldean, and Theban along with a long list of Irish specific histories were used in the construction of this timeline to investigate how the Scythians conquered Ireland with the help of the Egyptians. To make this investigation as complete as possible there are references to the Fomorians, Anunnaki, Anak, Lords of Annu, Akimim, and Olympian gods that could not be excluded as the people behind the myths must be described or the history will be filled with anomaly. Adam and Eve and Noah are also referenced as the Pleistocene Extinction flooded the world and killed most of the inhabitants. The story is based around three special Scythians named Naille, Gadel, and Mille who led the way to integrating with the Egyptian people and finally building the nation of Ireland.
