Beatrice fled from her home when soldiers arrived to punish the villagers' rebellion. She knew they would torch the houses, kill the men and use the women like savages. She would not let herself be taken by anyone.

But next morning, when five of the king's men found her in the forest and held her captive, the innocent maid was ready to bargain for her freedom with her body.

With so many men to please and give pleasure, fear soon turned to desire and innocence to overwhelming lust...

This is a sizzling short story of around 6000 words set in the medieval period in England.
