How To Improve Your Marriage: By studying love and romance in the Bible Steve Pease

Are you happy in your marriage? Do you want to make it better? Do you have the perfect marriage? Do you ever have problems with your spouse? Do you ever wish they would be different in how they do things? Do you wish your partner was more like when you met them? Thinking about these questions and your answers will make you think about if things could be better, and how together you can make things great. In this book we will discuss what God says, and what Jesus did, and what Godly men in the Bible did to make their love stronger and their marriages better. Then we will discuss some very easy to do things that you can do to show your partner you love them and that you want them to be happy. You will learn that if you praise your partner, in little things, the big things will go much easier. Do you love your partner? Almost everyone is in love when they get married, what happens, do we fall out of love? If so why do we fall out of love? Things change when the honeymoon is over and we start living our everyday lives of work and dealing with normal things that happen in life. Many times the things that happen in a marriage are just like the news on TV. If you watch the daily news you will notice that you don't see very many good and happy things. Remember how you first felt when you fell in love, how that person couldn't do anything wrong. You put them on a pedestal and thought they were wonderful, and you would do anything to see them and make them feel love and important? What's changed? You can make your life better with little changes.
