Self Analysis L. Ron Hubbard

Self Analysis is the first book to provide definite techniques to improve memory, speed reaction time, handle psychosomatic illness and reduce stress. It offers the means to spiritual self-discovery through a series of processes designed to give you the clearest look you have ever had into your past.

A series of tests at the beginning of the processing section enables you to assess your current emotional condition and spiritual state before starting, and provides a gauge of the improvements achieved as you progress through the book. You then embark on an analysis of your past, guided by simple and specific directions.

Through the processing contained in Self Analysis, you can discover that you are a much better friend to yourself than you ever thought possible.
