An Agent In Milo's Hands: Helder Chad Mortensen

Daniel grew up in home with loving parents and several siblings. As a child He was never given any indication that his life would be anything but normal. He was in for a surprise.

Many families feel like they are cursed, Daniels really is. A relative, many years in the past, made a magic hag very upset. In return, she cursed his family. The curse found its way down through many generations until it was brought to Daniel. This young man is sent to different places, time periods, and dimensions. He is burdened with a treacherous scavenger hunt. As if finding treasures with villains at every turn trying to thwart his progress wasn't difficult enough, he also has to help put his family past, present, and future back together. This has to happen before the effects of the curse tear at the cords that bind them and they are all doomed to be slaves to the witch.

This story has got it all: adventure, suspense, morals, and the importance of family togetherness
