Bullseye Larry Tomczak

Larry Tomczak served as student body president at Cleveland State University before working at the AFL – CIO headquarters across from the White House in Washington DC. He then entered full-time ministry and has served in this vocation for over 43 years. Larry has trained leaders, established dozens of churches in America and abroad and today serves as a cultural commentator bringing insight, analysis and perspective from a Biblical worldview. His articles appear on sites reaching 26 million monthly.

Larry is the author of nine books including a quarter-million bestseller, "Clap Your Hands", his autobiography. He has ministered internationally and appeared on national TV, plus spoken to numerous NFL and NBA teams.

He is a public policy advisor with Liberty Counsel legal defense organization and a 40 year board member of Intercessors for America national prayer ministry. He has been married for 40 years with four grown children and five grandchildren, and resides in the Nashville metropolitan area.

Larry has a conviction: as "David served the purpose of God in his generation and then fell asleep" (Book of Acts 13:36), if you would do the best with your life, find out what God is doing in your generation and fling yourself into it! For decades his ministry has helped individuals find and fulfill their destiny in life.

With the BULLSEYE initiative, Larry is issuing a challenge to people of all ages to become informed influencers in today's changing culture. Investing 15 minutes for 30 days, individuals can hit the mark by understanding and communicating confidently on the controversial issues of our day. This innovative approach consists of three steps: review a video for three minutes; read an article for 10 minutes; then, reflect and pray for two minutes.

In a compelling and enjoyable manner, Larry addresses these hot button issues: Social justice, same-sex marriage, racial inequality, Islam, legalizing marijuana, transgenderism, atheism, living together, the apocalypse, divorce, capital punishment, abortion, affairs, immigration, AIDS and STDs, suicide, masturbation, gay Christians, sexting, death with dignity and more. His passion is for everyone to know the truth and then confidently communicate it with charity and clarity.

In a national survey, 67% of conservative Christians said they want their church to provide them with more information – more biblical teachings – about the issues that are so important in an election. Additionally, Barna Research revealed that 90% of Christian leaders believe the Bible addresses most of today's controversial issues, yet only 10% said they were willing to address them! Here is a resource to supply adults and youth and pastors and everyone with what they need to be equipped and engaged in making a difference today.

Larry Tomczak has given us a gift as well as a secret weapon to become confident communicators and change agents in today's confusing world. He's calling everyone concerned about our future to take the the 30 day Bullseye challenge to change our lives and our nation.
