Why Choose This Book

Without John Lennon, there'd be no Quarrymen, much less the Beatles. It was his band. His love for music, rock 'n' roll particularly, gave birth to the group that would sweep Britain, America and the world off their feet in what the press termed as Beatlemania. John Lennon is a legend, a not-so-perfect man who had battled personal demons since he was young and stepped out of the shadow of the Beatles to launch his solo career. This book will show you John's colorful life from childhood to his death.

What's Inside

John's life is no ordinary. Discover:

- Why John felt unloved and unwanted when he was a kid, and the decision he had to make when he was just 5 years old
- John's reputation as a bad boy and troublemaker at school
- How John and Paul struck a songwriting partnership and friendship that would dwindle just before the Beatles' dissolution
- John's relationship with the women in his life
- How John coped up with fame
- John's obsession with Japanese avant-garde artist Yoko Ono and their crazy life together, and so much more!
