This novel was written at a women's writing workshop. Its purpose is to explore the ways in which the rules of female sexuality keep changing. The intent is to help each woman have a better sense of her body in all its parts and to empower her to claim it as her own. It also looks at several health risks resulting from the sexual revolution, and tries to do this all with humor. The goal is to help each woman not have more sex, but to gain better satisfaction.
