In a desperate attempt to escape an unwanted suitor, April Blackburn answers a mail order bride advertisement, only to find herself worlds away from the once privileged lifestyle she'd grown accustomed to.

Matt Shaw's world is on the brink of spiraling out of control. His housekeeper has quit, leaving him with no way of keeping his home in order and without the necessary skills to raise his younger sister. Now, he must find a suitable partner, but the one who lands on his doorstep is anything but prepared to keep a household or do anything to help him run the ranch.

Soon, Peggy's defiance, feuding neighbors, jealous former suitors and a world of differences will challenge the newly formed couple. Can they learn to love and accept their differences and keep those who aim to destroy their relationship at bay?
