Warning: For Mature Adult Audiences. Contains language and actions some may deem offensive. Mild violence. Sexually explicit content. Ménage - MFM In book six of Breaking Protocol: Just when things start to settle down for the team, they are called upon to deploy for a rescue mission, one that ties them together more than they think. Pop struggles with his life—from mistakes, hesitations, regrets, and love. When the one woman who was his biggest regret steps foot on the ranch, he's given a second chance to make things right, along with obtaining everything he had always wanted. That is if he doesn't let his mind overrule his heart. The General brings Gage to the ranch as a new member for the team, while there he is reunited with a friend. However, when both men set their sights on a petite brunette their friendship takes a hit. One they can only come back from if they work together. Zoey's priority is getting her brother home. When the team is tasked for the mission, she relocates to the ranch for safety reasons. Then she meets the team and realizes she may have been better off on her own, because not only is she without her brother, she soon could be left without a heart. A heart that beats for two. The team fires up for a rescue mission, adapting to what they find and embarking on a new mission that is more familiar than they'd expected. Can they get to Zoey's brother before it is too late? Or does the team fall into a trap set to extinguish them?
